*The Ohio State Life Insurance Company reserves the right to change any rate sheets and any applicable rate lock guidelines in its discretion at any time by updating and distributing such documents to producers or their agencies and recruiters. IMPORTANT: If you are an agency or recruiter, you are responsible for immediately forwarding to your producers any information and notices that we send to you that affects producers or our products, including without limitation updated rate sheets and rate lock guidelines. Notices and updates sent to any agency or recruiter will be deemed delivered notices to all of that agency's or recruiter's producers as of the date sent to the agency or recruiter. We consider all notices and updates, including these Rate Lock Guidelines, to be effective and enforceable as of the date they are sent to the agency or recruiter even if such agency or recruiter fails to forward such notices to its producers. Therefore, every agency and recruiter must fulfill its obligation to immediately communicate such information to its producers. In some instances, we may communicate notices directly to producers; however, this never relieves agencies and recruiters of their duty to notify their producers of our notices and updates, including any rate sheets and rate lock guidelines.

**For purposes of these Rate Lock Guidelines, an application is considered received in the administrative office only if all documentation required by The Ohio State Life Insurance Company in its sole discretion to constitute a complete, fully executed application is received, including without limitation full premium payment and any rollover, transfer or exchange paperwork and the completion of any enhanced suitability review if deemed necessary by The Ohio State Life Insurance Company.
